TRIES TO WORK SPIRITS

Letters to Mediums Create Sensation in Washington Court.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., July 29.-A sensation was created here today when letters were opened in court, alleged to have been written by Hugh Eldridge, promi-tiont politician, office-holder and son of the late pioneer, Edward Eldridge, ad-dressed to spiritualist mediums in San dressed to spiritualist mediums in San Francisco and invoking their aid in in-fluencing the late Erastus Bartlett of Oakland to validate a deed of valuable property in this city to Eldridge and his mather.

mother.

The letters were introduced by the prosecution in a suit brought by Bartlett helrs against Eldridge, charging fraud in employing the medium to take advantage of Bartlett's bellef in spiritualism. The correspondence attributed to Eldridge gives directions as to how to play upon Bartlett's friendship for the late Edward Eldridge, father of the alleged writer, whose wish to have the property retained by Mrs. Teresa Eldridge the mediums were supposed to transmit from the spirit of the dead.

Bartlett and Eldridge, Sr., were close associates in business during early days.
